THE editorial in the Knoxville ment of cases than is necessary. Lawvers are allowed to go outside of the record, and drag in the personal characters and surroundings of witnesses and defendants, and to abuse them without stint. Such a practice is contrary to justice, takes up time and costs money out of the public treasury. Everything can be said against it, while there is no reason, whatever to offer in justification of such a course. The courts have with the power to put an end to such a course the power to put an end to such of Knox county at the eneuing August election; subject to the Knox County Republican Conventhings and ought to do it. A WAR RECORD.

Senator Bayard's Fatal Mistake in 1861.

Secession Speech that Destroys His Presidential Prospects.

Special to the Cincinnati Commercial.] PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 24 .- What may be regarded as a very serious defection from the Bayard ranks will be developed to-morrow in the flinging up of the Bayard sponge by the Philadelphia Times, a journal which has for two years persistently advocated the senator from Delaware as the most available of the presidential candidates before the democratic party. The Times will publish a leader, in which the editor has drawn his conclusion to that Bayard is out of the race, from | The THREE above named publications. One the copperhead speech of the senadelivered at Dover in June, New York Sun, that journal quoting the Delaware Gazette of that year, which then published the speech in full. The Times regards this secession speech, which has been dug up at this late day against Bayard, as the fatal weakness in the senator's ar-
